GLOBAL MASTER OF ARTS
PROGRAM
(GMAP)

Miguel Monterrubio is one of the many thought leaders and difference makers who are also Fletcher GMAP students. Fletcher's Global Master of Arts Program (GMAP) gives you the interdisciplinary education you need to further your career as an international professional while you maintain your current position. In three 2-week residency sessions and 33 weeks of Internet-mediated study, you will earn a degree respected the world over and become part of an extensive alumni network.

Classes begin March and July 2004.
