About PRAXIS

Now in its third decade, PRAXIS provides a forum for the exchange of ideas and seeks to promote innovative research in the field of human security. Together with the Institute for Human Security at The Fletcher School, the journal explores the intersections among the historically separate fields of humanitarian aid, development, human rights, and conflict resolution.

The journal, published annually with a different theme each year, is produced entirely by Fletcher students in coordination with the Institute for Human Security. PRAXIS welcomes articles from a wide geographical and disciplinary range of practitioners and academics on topics that cut across the fields of humanitarianism, development, human rights, and conflict resolution.

For more information, please visit PRAXIS on the web at: <http://fletcher.tufts.edu/praxis> or email the staff at fletcherpraxis@tufts.edu.
