

REFUND POLICY

Students who elect to withdraw or who are required to withdraw are entitled to a tuition credit in accordance with the following policy:

The University refund policy for tuition charges is as follows:

1st to the 12th calendar day of the semester*refund 80%
13th to the 19th.....refund 60%
20th to the 26th.....refund 40%
27th to the 33rd.....refund 20%
Thereafter.....no refund

After the first two weeks of the semester, only the food cost portion of a meal contract is prorated over the term.

GMAP students follow the same refund policy. The first day of the semester is considered to be the first day of the reading period. In rare cases of admission after the first day of a reading period, the first day of the semester will be considered the day of acceptance of the admission offer.*

Medical Leave of Absence Refund Policy:

Withdrawal during the first two (2) weeks or less 90% credit adjustment
Withdrawal between two (2) to three (3) weeks80% credit adjustment
Withdrawal between three (3) to four (4) weeks60% credit adjustment
Withdrawal between four (4) to six (6) weeks40% credit adjustment
Withdrawal between six (6) to eight (8) weeks20% credit adjustment
Thereafterno adjustment to charges

Other charges, such as health insurance, and library and traffic fines, are neither pro-rated nor refunded. Withdrawal prior to the beginning of a term will result in cancellation of all charges except for dormitory room deposit and any tuition deposit or acceptance fee required prior to registration. Financial aid awarded for the term of withdrawal is prorated as follows:

- Scholarships, according to the tuition schedule above.
- Perkins Student Loans are canceled if not signed before withdrawal.
- Federal loans will be refunded according to the refund policy detailed in the Tufts Bulletin.